Virtual Workshop/Keynote Abstract

“Keys to Racial Healing and Unity”

Abstract

There are many people of all races who sincerely want to heal the racial divide but do not know how to approach the subject. This informative and interactive workshop introduces (3) major needs for healing, (3) things that must happen before healing can take place, and (3) common goals all races can unite around.

Goal: To bring awareness to attendees of the need for racial healing and unity, and to share methods and techniques to accomplish it.

“His ability to grab the audience’s attention from beginning to end is unmatched. His willingness to blend his personal life tragedies alone with his corporate experience makes him a must have at your next event”

-Orlando Pitts, Director of Operations [Madison/Decatur], Office Pride Commercial Cleaning

Objectives

1. Expose attendees to the three major needs for racial healing.
2. Introduce three things that must happen before healing can take place.
3. Share three common goals all races can unite around.
